A field guide to local projects

This neutral example describes small projects and the notes that help teams compare their progress before they choose the next simple task to complete.

The first team keeps a clear record.
Their notes describe each small task.
A short review closes the local work.

The second team checks each record.
Their list names the next plain step.
A final check confirms the work done.

A shared summary across the local project groups

Project results

24

Amber trials
Notes stored
Checks passed

18

Blue trials
Files sorted
Tasks closed

H O W W E S T A R T

ONE SMALL LOCAL WORKFLOW